Using these sorting lists

These sorting lists are for Royal Mail's International Business Mail and Business Parcels Max Sort services, as well as Print Direct services. They explain which of the three delivery speeds: Priority, Standard and Economy are available by country, and which destination label must be attached to the relevant mailbag. Where a country has more than one entry point the guide explains which postcodes or areas to use for each entry point.

Which labels you need to use

Destination label

Every bag of mail you send needs a destination label. These sorting Lists are split into Priority, Standard and Economy sections, and then into regional zones (e.g. Western Europe, Africa & Asia). Within each zone, countries are listed alphabetically.

Once you have found the country you are mailing to, read across to find which destination label you need. Some countries, but not all, are split again (into towns, cities, counties, states, postcodes etc.), and have several destination label options. These explain which groups you should sort and bag your mail into, as well as which destination label needs to be attached to the bag. Please make sure you identify the correct destination label.

Latest changes made
